WHAT ARE WE TALKING ABOUT

IN COMMON

- Children
- Chess board/pieces
- Choose to work with chess instead of 100 other things

CHESS IN SCHOOLS

- Teaching by chess players
- People from outside
- Fine chess skills
- Often after school
- Goal: Feel the chess-love

CHESS IN SCHOOLS

”Chess in Schools is when often one person from outside the School enters to teach the children chess. The person love chess and is probably part of a chess environment. The primary goal is chess activities.”

(Jacobsen, 2017)

SCHOLASTIC CHESS

- Run by the Schools teachers
- Often very poor chess skills
- Chess as a method
- Often during the School day
- Goal: Children do better in School and life

SCHOLASTIC CHESS

”Scholastic Chess is run by teachers that is already teaching at the School. The teachers have most likely never been to a chess club. The goal is developing the childrens’ learning skills and chess is one of many metods to reach that goal.”

(Jacobsen, 2017)
